Why pay more when you can get
 it for only 90c large cups of Mr.
 "Pop" or 75c for the smaller size, packing—just a coupon on a 25¢ silver of "Mr.
 Pop" coffee is all you need! Look for the coupon on the tin. It is now so

An editor sent our clerical letters
 to a large number of married men,
 and asked them why they married.
 The answers were as follows:
 "Because I did not have the experience I have now."
 "That's what I have been trying to do, but I didn't find out."
 "I married to get even with my mother; but I never have."
 "I have yearned for company. Now
 I have it all at the expense of my health; if it would be cheaper than bread I promise still."
 "I married because I had told me
 she had proposed to me."
 "That's the same fool question! My friends ask me."
 "I married because I was still opposite the door. She is still opposite."

Because I asked her to have me and she said she would. I think she let me.

Because I thought she was one thousand a thousand; now I think she is thousand among me.

I was very very melancholy and wanted some one to make me lively. He makes it very lively. —Ex.
